

- Stay on trails.
- Do not go on beaches
- Give right-of-way to riding horses. The trails are narrow, let the rider decide if they want you to stop or pass.
- Walk when passing pedestrians.
- To minimize interference with concession rides - go out on the trails marked in yellow on the map and return on the trails marked in blue on the map.

Stay off trails marked with orange on the map

There has been a lot of washout lately – watch out for rock and root especially on hills.
