Past Meeting:

Snow, snow and more snow....if you have a way to pack it down, great weather for sleighing!

The Twelfth Night Holiday Party in January went on regardless of the threat of several inches of snow. The food, as usual, was delicious, and most of the attendees came from quite a distance including from Buzzards Bay, Boylston, Monson and N. Kingstown, RI. The snow did not start until we were through dinner and well into the Dutch auction. Some really nice items were donated including several sets of horse brasses mounted on leather straps, a collection of driving bits, a dressage saddle pad, pony long lines and Hungarian wine. Kate Bushman kept the records for the bidding.

During the dinner, we learned a lot about equine Lyme disease from Bunny Lumb who has lost two from it. She has a new horse now that she boards in a location away from the woods and drives around cranberry bogs to avoid the high tick population in the woods around Buzzards Bay. Beth Francis, a prospective new member, came with Bunny. She brought photos of the Welch Cob stallion she shares with her daughter who does dressage. Beth is having fun driving him and reported that he has sired some nice foals with more expected. Henry Tinkham had some good horse stories he shared. Either his memory is better than most or he has gotten himself into more unique situations with his horse adventures. He and Virginia reported that there was good sleighing at the Wrentham Developmental Center (that was before the last three snowstorms). It was mentioned that the Driving Forum, our springtime "high" on everything driving related, will not be held this year, but will be scheduled for 2010 as an "every-other-year" event. Attendees, in addition to hosts Janice and Charles Meszoely were Henry and Virginia Tinkham, Bunny Lumb and guest Beth Francis, Kate Bushman and Kevin Smith, Carol Carpenter and David Chamberlain, Bill and Lauren Ostiguy and Pat Hubbell. All headed home by about 8:30 pm before the snow began to accumulate.

Next Meeting:

The next meeting is a Sunday brunch on Feb 15th at 10:30 am. At the Mansfield, MA Holiday Inn. This is very close to the intersection of Interstates 95 and 495 so should be an easy commute for most. The cost is $14.95 per person. Send a check made out to RIDC to Bev Willard at 7 Rhodes Street, Plainville, MA. 02762, bwillard7@comcast.net for the brunch.

News from Members:

Adrienne St Cyr has a new horse, Tucker, a 4 year old Clyde/Saddlebred cross to be a wheeler in the four bays. He is replacing JD who is now with Peter Von Halem to perhaps be a leader.

Diana Harrison of Middletown, RI, has purchased a 15h, 6 year old Haflinger she found in the Steed Read from N. Situate. He is green but has now been to Carriage Barn where they loved him. She is in the market for a harness, cart and trailer.
